

BEATTIE WEEPS AS FATHER TESTIFIES

CHESTERFIELD COURTHOUSE, Aug. 31.—Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., indicted for the murder of his wife, sobbed like a child today when his gray-haired father, in a low, tremulous voice, told of the domestic felicity of his son and the slain woman, Louise Owen Beattie. It was the first time that the stoical calm of the prisoner's countenance had given way during the trial.

The testimony of the father in behalf of his son came as the dramatic close of a long day's battle by the defense against the evidence heaped up by the prosecution. Tomorrow the accused will go on the stand and the defense will rest its case.

Buttering constantly against the testimony of Paul Beattie, cousin of the prisoner, as to the purchase of the gun, his delivery of it to Henry and his subsequent conversations with the accused, the defense introduced several witnesses to cast doubt upon the veracity of Paul.

It emphasized the point when it produced David Beattie, Paul's grandfather, and the uncle of Henry, who testified that Paul's character was not good. It was another intense period in the trial, for with apparent regret, the aged man told of his grandson's shortcomings.

The most surprising refutation of the day against Paul's testimony came when Ernest H. Nebitt said that on Sunday, July 16, he saw Paul Beattie on the bridge where he worked, handling a single-barreled shotgun. Paul has maintained ever since the coroner's inquest that he disposed of the gun the same day that he bought it. Saturday, July 15, by giving it to Henry. Subsequently, the defense brought many witnesses to tell of Mr. Nebitt's good character, and brought others to attack Paul's veracity.

Called "Biggest Liar" in Town.

E. H. Lewis, an employee of the Beattie store in South Richmond, declared that people spoke of Paul Beattie as "the biggest liar in town."

Henry Clay Beattie, Sr., father of the accused, was interrogated for an hour just before court adjourned. As he stepped to the witness stand, the prisoner's face flushed. The white-

NO DYSPEPSIA, STOMACH GAS OR INDIGESTION

Your Out-of-Order Stomach Feels Fine Five Minutes After Taking a Little Diapepsin.

Every year regularly more than a million stomach sufferers in the United States, England and Canada take Pape's Diapepsin, and realize not only immediate relief, but lasting relief. This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, knobby, or out-of-order stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or when you eat like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your Pharmacist a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness, or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to thoroughly cure almost any case of Dyspepsia, Indigestion or any other stomach disorder.

Faded man, his face wrinkled and pale, spoke in a voice scarcely above a whisper. Counsel leaned forward over the bench to listen to him. He talked with great effort, "repressing" an ever-recurring emotion. He told how his life had been saddened by the death of some of his children; how Henry, in his infancy, had been neglected because twins came into the family during his boyhood, and described how, on this account and the death of his own wife, he had grown closely attached to his son. He described the strong love that had existed between Henry and the ill-fated wife, testifying that he himself grew to love his daughter-in-law as one of his own children.

"When her baby was born," said Beattie, speaking of the dead woman, "it was like starting life over for me to see the grandchild I drew up all together very much."

The father spoke highly of his son's character, and controverted the testimony of many witnesses for the prosecution that Henry showed no signs of grief after his wife's murder.

When Beattie had finished and was ready for cross-examination by the prosecution, Mr. Wendenburg waived the opportunity. It was the first time during the trial that this had occurred.

MOUNTED TROOPS TO BORDER

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—In order that there may be plenty of cavalry soldiers in the south for police duty along the Mexican frontier in times of emergency the war department has decided to establish two squadrons of mounted troops at Fort Huachuca and Apache, Ariz., instead of one as at present.

The headquarters band and 10 troops of the two squadrons will be at Fort Huachuca, while two troops will be stationed at Fort Apache. Three railroads entering Mexico intersect at Douglas, Ariz., near Fort Huachuca, and consequently the latter is considered an ideal place to develop.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL TAKES FIRM STAND

CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—C. H. Markham, president of the Illinois Central railroad, today took a hard line in the conference with union representatives who seek to induce the road to recognize the newly-organized federation of railroad unions. Mr. Markham apparently was unwilling to recede from the road's previous stand of treating only with the representatives of the individual unions involved.

At the conclusion of the conference he issued the following statement: "We had a conference with three of the representatives of the International Brotherhood of Railroad Employees, with which we have contracts, and they were told that the officers of the Illinois Central railroad could not and would not discuss a new agreement while such contracts are in existence, and that if canceled, it might be done in the usual formal manner that has heretofore prevailed, and for which the contracts provide, and which also stipulate that 30 days' notice shall be given by either party of a desire to change the terms of the same."

"Their attention was called to the fact that the Illinois Central had always lived up to both the letter and spirit of these contracts, and that it expected its employees as parties to the same to do likewise."

The railroad was represented at the conference by President Markham, Vice-President Park, Assistant General Manager Toley and Superintendent of Motive Power Barnum. The unions were represented by P. J. Condon, vice president of the Machinists union; P. Paquin, vice president of the Carpenters union; and A. Helmenstein, vice president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Employees.

None of the union officials would discuss the situation. From Mr. Markham's office they went to the office of the Blacksmiths and Helpers International union and held a secret conference. Telegrams were dispatched at the end of this conference to the presidents of the nine international unions involved who are in San Francisco for a meeting with Julius Kruttschnitt, vice president of the Harriman lines.

The labor men here let it be known that their future action would depend on the instructions they should receive from their presidents, and that those instructions would depend on the outcome of the conference with Mr. Kruttschnitt.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 31.—Results of today's conference with the Illinois Central officers should have a favorable effect on negotiations tomorrow with the Harriman lines," said President J. W. Kline of the Blacksmiths International union, tonight, when told of President Markham's statement.

The Illinois Central has not refused to recognize the federation. It appears to be waiting for the result of the conference here.

"Mr. Markham has a right to insist on 30 days' notice of proposed change of contract, to be submitted through his superintendents, if he does not care to accept notice directly from the representatives of the crafts acting jointly."

"The next move, I should say, would be to serve such notice."

Frisco Conference Today.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 31.—One possible avenue to an agreement appeared here tonight, following an all-day conference between the five unions of shopworkers who are preparing to ask Julius Kruttschnitt, vice president and director of maintenance and operation of the Harriman lines, for recognition of the federation of shop employees.

Following the announcement that a meeting with Mr. Kruttschnitt had been arranged for 11 o'clock a. m. tomorrow, it was given out that the general officers of the unions in consultation with their advisory boards had agreed that the demands of the men must be insisted upon.

"Does that mean recognition of the federation?" President J. W. Kline of the Blacksmiths International union, was asked.

"It amounts to that," he replied, "but the word 'federation' seems to scare a good many persons. What we shall insist upon, according to our agreement today, is recognition of a joint committee representing the various unions."

Mr. Kruttschnitt has declared recognition of the federation impossible, giving a list of reasons for this attitude.

Denver Organization Cautions.

DENVER, Aug. 31.—The Denver chamber of commerce, this afternoon adopted resolutions urging the shop employees of the Union Pacific and a number of other railroads to again seriously consider the questions involved and refrain from precipitating a contest in which their position might not be supported by public opinion.

The resolutions recite that "it is now and always has been the custom of the railroads to deal with their own employees and with their unions and brotherhoods, and the representatives thereof separately and individually, and they are willing to do so, and that it appears that the present demands absolutely empower the officers of the shop employees' federation with the right to interfere in the management and control of each of the railroads, to an extent which seems to be unjust and unreasonable."

They also asserted that a strike at the present time, when large crops, and other heavy tonnage in the state of Colorado must be moved by the railroads involved, would seriously injure the business interests of the state.

GEIDEL JURY LOCKED UP

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—The life of Paul Geidel, a 17-year-old hellboy, hangs in the balance. The 12 men who have been trying him on a charge of murdering William H. Jackson, an aged Wall Street broker, failed to reach a verdict up to last midnight after having been closeted since 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and were locked up for the night with instructions to report in the morning.

ment that may bite and may be bad for us to take.

"If we are going to take the position that we will wait until the question arises and then conclude (because we don't think we can win in the arbitration case) that it is not a justiciable question, then we have written our promises in water and we have made agreements that dissolve under the test of experience that will follow, which may be anticipated, that instead of promoting the cause of arbitration we have interfered with it, obstructed it and made it a laughing stock with all nations."

Before turning to arbitration the president spoke of the efforts that the supreme court is making to reform the rules of equity procedure in the federal courts, and declared that the salaries of federal judges should be increased.

Speaking of the salaries of federal judges, the president said that those of circuit judges should be increased so as to be more commensurate with those paid district judges.

Urges Better Salaries.

"Of course," he said, "the salaries of the supreme court members ought to be increased. We have got them up to $12,500 or something like that. They ought to get up to $25,000. A court which exercises such great responsibility and calls for such ability and learning ought to have its members amply paid so that they need not be dependent on lecturing in law schools and doing other things for the purpose of eking out a salary that only enables them to live."

Speaking of patent law and patent cases, the president said he hoped that the new court of commerce would be used as a "court of patent appeal."

The supreme court in such cases, he found, had proved a failure. The president then spoke of "reforms" and his hearers who before his entrance had debated a resolution upon the recall of the judiciary, leaned forward eagerly.

The expected denunciation "did not come, but instead there was an evidently whole-hearted appreciation of the early members of the supreme court."

"And now, gentlemen," he said, "there

Miss Lois Ford Weds Ernest Musick Here

Unwilling to spend a year in Europe studying away from her sweet heart, Miss Lois Ford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Seth P. Ford, 425 North Wabash street, was yesterday married to Ernest Musick, brother of W. Jasper Musick, the drummer, of this city, the Rev. Eugene Smith of Grand Junction performing the ceremony here.

It is understood that Miss Ford's parents objected to the suit of Musick, and when Miss Ford was told recently that she was to take a trip to Europe to study music, she indicated she preferred to study Musick here.

Musick is employed by the Red Cross pharmacy.

As it now stands, the Orient railway has better traffic facilities from Kansas City east than from Kansas City southwest.

25 PROMINENT CITIZENS JOIN CIVIC ASSOCIATION

The Colorado City Business Men's association was formerly organized at the meeting at the city hall last night, when 25 prominent citizens became charter members and paid the admission fee of $5. Although the meeting was well attended, many more intend to join. It is expected that at least 25 more will join next Thursday night, when the charter of the organization will be signed.

A board of 11 directors to have general charge of the association was appointed out of the first 25 members and will serve a term of three months. Following are the members of the board: E. H. Forst, chairman; E. H. Hault, A. L. Perry, J. R. Thrasher, Dr. J. H. Smith, W. B. Richards, Fred Kiskader, O. C. Shackelford, J. B. Brestel, J. J. McCorkle and S. Kranz.

One committee, the printing committee, Dr. J. H. Smith, chairman; O. C. Shackelford and J. J. McCorkle, was appointed last night, the appointment of the others being postponed until next meeting.

A large part of the evening was taken up with interesting and enthusiastic talks by G. M. McLaughlin, who has made a study of civic associations in many large cities, gave a report upon the amount and kind of work this particular association should do.

George Forst talked along similar lines.

The fact that both Colorado Springs and Manitou have been boasting this evening this evening, as never before, gives an incentive to the people of Colorado City.

Sunday School Workers Will Meet This Evening

A meeting of the committee members appointed by the various Sunday schools of the county to aid in the preparing of the parade Sunday school week, has been called for this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. building. A request is made that the superintendents of the Sunday schools who have not appointed a parade committee, have a representative at the meeting.

Sunday will be Association day in the Sunday schools at Manitou. On account of previous arrangements, the church organizations of that city were not able to celebrate on the regular date. The officers of the county association will be present and take part in the services.

CONFESSES AND SHOWS LOOT TO THE OFFICERS

Charles Pitney, 21, of Rush, Colo., who was suspected several weeks ago charged with the theft of a gold watch and ring, valued at $100, from J. H. Laidie, a blacksmith, yesterday led Deputy Sheriff Compton and Detectives Dimock and Baisback 12 miles west of this city, and showed them where he had buried the valuables.

Pitney, who will be bound over to the district court, says that he will plead guilty to grand larceny.

"PIKE NEWS" PUBLISHED FOR THE FOREST SERVICE

The officers of the Pike national forest have again resumed the publication of a newspaper for the benefit of members of the service. It is type-written, bound in green and called the "Pike News." It is heralded as a worthy successor of the "Piker," a similar publication, which was gotten out for some time and then discontinued. It is announced that it will be issued every three months, and is to give current news of the Pike forest and the forestry world in general.

The publication is not issued exclusively by the office force in Denver, but the first number is filled with articles from supervisors and rangers, and in fact, every branch of the service is represented. Articles on forest fires by men who took part in their suppression, the work of the fire patrol, sales of timber, timber sale inspection, planting, the relation of the settler and the forest ranger and reconnaissance are some of the subjects treated in the first publication.

The articles are written by men of college education in some instances, and whether by the college graduate or the forest ranger who never saw anything but a few hours each day in the "little red school house," they are all perfect in diction and instructive, not only to the men involved in the actual work, but to the public as well.

C. W. Fitzgerald is the supervisor of the Pike national forest, which includes that on Pikes Peak.

NEFF-ER AGAIN

"Out again, in again, Neff, again!" might well be the title of the drama, "How to Be a Police Clerk, While a Laborer," agent, the reemployment yesterday of one A. Floyd Neff at the desk of the police clerk at the city hall. Neff served 60 days under the clause of the civil service commission rules, permitting temporary employment for that length of time, without examination, and then gently but firmly was told that his services were wanted to do the work—but that they could be dispensed with. And they were.

Meanwhile, in the rare and infrequent periods left the various members of the detective force from their arduous labors, they have been trying to do the police clerk's work. That is the real cause of the we-we-hired-to-be-police-men, oh-why-then-do-we-work expressions seen about the police department these days.

To allow the sleep-seducing sleuths much-needed recuperation, therefore, Commissioner Himebaugh yesterday hired Mr. Neff. He merely hired him, as a man, as an extra, so to speak, and then, painted with a fireman's safety-child gesture to the police clerk's desk. Later to make himself still more clear, he said, "I hired you with you see—I hired just as we hire men—laborers—to take care of dead cats and dogs—you know."

It being perfectly obvious that no civil service examination is needed to indicate ability to remove dead cats from a cruel and carking world, the explanation as to Mr. Neff's present incumbency of the desk is now clear. It is all, apparently, harking back to the dead-cat parallel, a questioner was further informed, that Neff's present duties would probably last but two or three days.

Meanwhile, the contrivance given out to the patrolmen and Sheriff Holmes of the force, is "Neff-er again!"

ITALIAN MINER MURDERED

TRINIDAD, Colo., Aug. 31.—Salvatore Colantonio, an Italian miner, was killed shortly after midnight today by a shot fired through the window of his room in the boarding house at Valdez, a Colorado fuel and iron company camp, 13 miles west of here. Giuseppe Macci, a countryman, with whom he had quarreled earlier in the evening, is missing.

FACE DISFIGURED WITH ECZEMA

Covered with Eruption to Back of Ears So They Hardly Knew What He Looked Like. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. In 4 Weeks Face Fine and Clean.

"Our little boy, Gilbert, was troubled with eczema when but a few weeks old. His little face was covered with sores even to back of his ears. The poor little fellow suffered very much. The sores began, as I remember, his little face was disfigured very much. We hardly knew what he looked like. The doctor looked like a cat and dog—you know."

It being perfectly obvious that no civil service examination is needed to indicate ability to remove dead cats from a cruel and carking world, the explanation as to Mr. Neff's present incumbency of the desk is now clear. ## GAZETTE—60th MONTH

The Reason Why

The question of FUEL for the cold days of the coming winter, is one which it is well to consider wisely.

For many years we have advocated that Genuine Gas Coke is the fuel best suited for home purposes, especially in the furnace. This has resulted in hundreds of Colorado Springs residents using COKE exclusively.

They have found that it positively does the following four things:

- Saves Money
  - Saves Time
  - Saves Labor
  - Gives More Heat
- Does not any one of these statements interest you? We will gladly take time to prove them to you.

securing the acquittal of Richard Hare. The part of Lady Isabel abounds in strong dramatic passages and thrilling scenes, and the late Lucius West, one of the very best actresses America ever produced, made it the strongest part in her repertoire. Sir Francis Levison and Archibald Carlyle are also strong parts, while Miss Corney Carlyle, in the hands of a capable actress, will keep an audience convulsed with laughter at her eccentricities.

MIZZI HAJOS SPEAKS ANGLAIS

Mizzi Hajos, the little "Hungarian prima donna" of "The Spring Maid," who comes to the Opera house Monday and Tuesday, has found that not all the gold that comes to her this side of the Atlantic has been merely a matter of singing to her audiences and merely playing as she did across the Atlantic, for there have been painful struggles with the English language. It is told that her English studies for a year and a half have been entirely verbal, and that, while she speaks today fluently, with only a foreign intonation, her lessons in writing "the language all mixed" are only beginning. The foreign song bird continues her daily lesson in the language she is under contract to speak for five years, with a tutor, but refuses also in asstant tutors to the number of nearly 100 in the members of "The Spring Maid" company, who instruct her in Americanisms.

A recent letter to the advance representatives of the organization suggests her perplexity as to the size of her adopted country.

My Sir that runs away so much: Atlantic City, did you hear me in? I am Hungarian it is all the same to me. American, a very nice place they throw and laugh, but yes, Americans cheer and cheer and flowers the stage all over. They like me all. I am glad so much. Then no breaths I sing to them—I funny princess they laugh—oh, so much, yes. Four new hat suits—all new, most beautiful. I all forget. Poor ocean no little Mizzi can have.

My dear managers kindly speak it. I talk English most ungraciously but yet English like some fish write. But one year ago and little hat Mizzi writes the language all like mixed.

Look, see now. I go asleep in train bedroom, again I wake seven hundred miles away. My manager says, "Oh, you see, Mizzi. Oh, you like me. American language. I say by Gosh, seven hundred miles. It is Europe all over. He say we two day ride once to San Francisco. I look maps much there. He say we much country for ride. Oh, yes. Tell me so I make laughs with him. You say I come singing all my best. Seats are now selling 50 cents to 25c.

EXIT BILLY VAN ET AL THIS EVENING

It might be well to remind amusement lovers who have not attended the Majestic this week—although there are few in this vicinity who have not—that this evening ends the engagement of Billy Van et al. at the great hall of aggregation of entertaining vaudeville performers who have joined with William this week in furnishing delightful diversion to several thousand inhabitants of the Pike's Peak region, who seem to have acquired the Majestic habit. Besides Van there are Fernin Somers and Tillie Storke in the laughable farce, "Jackson's Honeycomb," the sensational popular Olcott Troubadours, Italian musicians, the Four Nelson Comiques, amusing acrobats, the exclusive Rex Film, "The Colonel's Daughter," and the comedy picture play, "What They Did to Dad," and the concert orchestra music under the leadership of Director George Hockenberger. Too many good things to miss—and this afternoon and evening is the last chance.

"HOGAN IN SOCIETY"

MAJESTIC TOMORROW

It was Bert Leslie who established "Hogan in Society" as America's classic in slang and, until recently, it was Bert Leslie who had kept vaudeville-loving America laughing at the adventures of that really amiable "Hick" upon the occasion of his first plunge into the big city. Leslie, who was born and bred in the hills, recently has come young George Rolland to contend with Leslie for the title of "King of Slang," and no less an authority than Leslie himself, admits that Rolland is easily his equal. So sincere is Leslie in this conviction that he turned the Hogan act over to Mr. Rolland and when the act was tried out in New York John W. Connelley happened to be present and offered it booked for the full S. & C. tour. It has been everywhere one of the big hits of the year.

BRYAN'S WANING PRESTIGE.
THERE is no parallel in American political history to Mr. Bryan's career. No other politician has experienced such a peculiar combination of good and bad luck. No other man ever jumped in a day from absolute obscurity to the undisputed leadership of a great political party, merely by delivering a catchy speech. No other man was ever thrice nominated for the Presidency by one of the major parties and thrice defeated. Neither is there another instance of an unsuccessful political leader retaining almost unbroken control of his party for so long a time. Bryan's leadership has never won even a Congressional election for the Democrats; invariably it has brought them to defeat. But this very fact may be urged as an evidence of his extraordinary capacity. The man who in this day can keep himself at the head of a great political party for fifteen years possesses unusual abilities, whether he wins or loses his battles with the enemy.
It is easy enough to make some temporary reverse a pretext for a prediction of the downfall of a political leader. In Mr. Bryan's case such prophecies have been made times without number, but somehow he has managed to stay on top of the heap. But just the same there is more reason for making this prediction now than ever before. It is not altogether a matter of popular dissatisfaction with his proven inability to win; it is largely because of changed conditions.
Nowadays the people are not interested in the subjects left which at one time or another behind. Mr. Bryan has made his "parade" of those things have been relegated to the limbo of dead issues. The insurgent movement in the Republican party has created or is the creature of a new set of political ideas, and the effect of this movement has been to bring forward a new set of leaders not only in the Republican ranks but in the Democratic party as well.
One of these is Mr. Underwood of Alabama, leader of the House Democrats, who only a few days ago ventured to give Bryan a drubbing which no Democrat would have dared administer even two years ago. Champ Clark, reinforced by the authority of his position as Speaker of the House, probably possesses more actual influence today than the once peerless leader, and there is no doubt whatever that Woodrow Wilson is a bigger man to Democrats in every part of the country than Bryan.
It goes without saying that Bryan will not be a figure of commanding importance in the next Democratic National Convention. He will not be a candidate and unless present conditions change materially he will not have very much to say as to the naming of the candidate. He may not even control the delegation from his own State; indeed, there is every probability that his avowed enemies will rule the Democratic party in Nebraska.
Bryan's letter denouncing Senator Martin of Virginia, together with his tilt with Congressman Underwood, brings him into open hostility with the Democratic leaders in both houses of Congress. For him it is an especially difficult position, because he has nothing to gain by it while his opponents have nothing to lose. They can ignore him completely without risking a charge of disloyalty, for he is no longer recognized as the actual party leader. A man of his magnetic personality can always command a following, and as long as Bryan remains in politics he will have a band of faithful adherents. But it is a perfectly safe assumption that he will never again be the recognized head of the Democratic hosts.

OPEN PARLIAMENT.
To the Editor of The Gazette:
Perhaps it is a little waste of time to reply to your correspondent who signs herself "A. A. B." in this morning's paper, but I believe that a few words on the other side of the question would not be amiss.
She (I take it) grants that no real man would have written such piffle, admits that the habit of smoking is almost universal and therefore that she is in a hopeless minority in objecting to it. Because she doesn't like the odor of tobacco smoke, she thinks that it should not be allowed to perfume the air of our cafes. The perfume of flowers gives some people far more pleasure than the odor of tobacco smoke. Why, then, should A. A. B. wish to deny those who enjoy tobacco the privilege of using it, when she knows that most people like it?
As for the expense that railways and so on are put to provide for the smokers, isn't she a little off? Aren't smoking cars and smoking rooms furnished in a much plainer and cheaper manner than the other cars and rooms? Hold your nose, A. A. B., and look into one and see for yourself the next time you get a chance.
It seems unfair to compare smoking with profanity; they are so totally different. It is doubtful if anyone can find a profane man who will maintain that it serves any useful purpose when indulged in habitually. Of course, when a man pounds his thumb-nail instead of the nail he is trying to drive, it relieves his mind to curse a little; but in the average case the time he has no words at hand strong enough to be satisfactory in such emergencies. Smoking has a tendency to calm the mind and to promote a philosophical trend of thought than cannot but be beneficial.
It is certainly most uncharitable to refer to the majority as hogs because they are capable of enjoying tobacco; it reminds me of the old story of the Quaker who said to his wife, "All the world is queer except thee and me and sometimes I think that thee is a little queer." I agree with A. A. B. that something ought to be done about it. She doesn't say what to do, but I will propose, Mr. Editor, that she get a box of cigarettes and learn to smoke and then she will be in the majority and be much happier.
Colorado Springs, Aug. 31.
A. SMOCKER.

SWINGING AROUND THE CIRCLE.
To the Editor of The Gazette:
In your leading editorial in this morning's paper the sentence is made that the phrase, "Swing Around the Circle," originated during the incumbency of President Harrison. My best knowledge of the sentiment was when applied to President Andrew Johnson, who toured the country making speeches to set himself right with the people after his impeachment by the house of representatives. I remember reading the sentence in the headlines of reports of his speeches during his political journey. President Johnson (who assumed the presidency after the assassination of the martyred Lincoln) had the reputation of being the pronoun "I" in public speeches often than any orator in history.
Colorado Springs, Aug. 31.
O. LANGFORD.

FROM OTHER PENS.
SENATOR BAILEY
From the Sioux City Tribune.
Every time Bailey is beaten there is a sigh of relief.
From the Providence Evening Tribune.
Senator Bailey's continued betrayal of his party and of the people's interests must deepen the regret that some way was not found to prevent him from pulling the string on his last spring's resignation of his senatorship.
From the Buffalo Evening News.
Joe Bailey is a bad agent. He gets that way every time he doesn't have his own way in the senate. The "drys" in Texas are grinding knives and axes for him and he is not happy over that fact.
CREMATION SLOWLY INCREASING
From the Journal of the American Medical Association.
Modern cremation originated in 1856. Today, after 45 years of agitation, there are 80 crematories in Europe. Of these, 22 are in Germany, 7 in Switzerland and 30 in Italy. About 15,000 bodies were cremated in Europe during 1909. In the United States from 1876 to 1909 there were 12,012 cremations recorded. This method of disposing of the dead is growing in favor. In Boston, the substitution of crematories for potter's fields has long been agitated. In New York, the bodies of inmates dying of infectious diseases at the quarantine station are cremated, unless the surviving relatives have religious scruples against this method. While the advance is slow, cremation seems to be gaining in favor.

TRAINING FOR CITIZENSHIP.
From the Baltimore Sun.
The development of the departments of American history and political science by a number of universities and colleges, of which encouraging signs have been given recently, is a movement of more than passing importance. Before the rise of political science in the modern sense it was considered sufficient to have a classical or technical education as a foundation for the duties of life, without any particular equipment for the responsibilities of citizenship. When the general body of the people participated less, or not at all, in the practical work of government than is the case today, the need for this specialized training was not greatly felt. It undoubtedly retarded the evolution of states but a broad knowledge of the functions of government was not a pressing necessity for the average man. In these days of widely extended suffrage, a free press and signs of the accelerated

TWO NEW DREADNOUGHTS.
ADVANCED advocates of the universal peace propaganda are much concerned over the announcement of next year's naval plans. The battleship program for the present year, as recently authorized by Congress, provides for two superdreadnoughts, the New York and the Texas, each of 27,000 tons displacement and carrying main batteries of ten 14-inch guns each.

It is said that these will be the most powerful vessels afloat, but it is not at all improbable that by the time they are actually afloat Germany or Great Britain, or both will be found to have duplicated them.
One of the unsatisfactory aspects of the battleship building business is that there is no standing still. It has been so from the beginning. Every new vessel designed must be bigger, more heavily armored, and more powerfully armed than its predecessor. It is so in the present instance. The construction of the New York and the Texas has hardly been started, but already the Navy Department announces plans for two other ships, each of 28,500 tons displacement.
It is not surprising that the advocates of disarmament complain. But although every intelligent person is convinced of the criminal folly of war it must be admitted that no effective remedy has yet been found, and it follows that until we have the means of avoiding war it would be an extremely dangerous thing to slacken our efforts to provide adequate national defenses.

SUNFLOWER PHILOSOPHY.
I often drop my helpful book to watch fair Arabella cook. No weary kitchen drudge is she; she cooks with gladness and ecstasy. I've seen her take some flour and grease, and then produce a masterpiece. With soul inspired and glowing in the kitchen, when from the oven she will take some lovely and triumphant cake she feels alone. And when she has found the board and view with joy the tempting board of things that make our stomachs gay, we hand the cook a lance of bouquet. Semina hasn't learned to cook; she paints large pictures of a brook and pea green and stands therein, with her house trees with leaves of tin, and crimson crows are soaring by, beneath a stretch of unbridled sky, and that shines on bird and beast, is shining slowly in the east. We turn away, with sinking heart, from fair Semina's staid art, give her the job that she deserves, and watch sweet Arabella's curves.

THE CHARM OF THIS STORE.
The correctness with which a man pronounces an old college professor used to tell all his classes, "is the hall mark of his culture and education."
How do you think you would stand according to that criterion?
It seems to me that very few people would be 100-point folks by that test.
Perhaps you think my remarks are unduly sweeping and unnecessarily harsh. Perhaps you think that you, for instance, do not very often make a mistake in pronunciation.
Now before you put yourself on the back my friend, let me ask you how you pronounce a few words like address, inquiry, alias, interesting, aquaint, grievous, harass, illustrate, precedence, resource.
Look up your pronunciation of these words in the dictionary and if you have them all right I humbly beg your pardon. But I'll wager I won't have to.
Of course, the common words which could hardly be pronounced in more than one way most of us get right. Only children and distinctly ignorant people make errors in these. But there are many words which are commonly pronounced two or three ways and yet which should properly be pronounced only one way. When a man pronounces all these words properly he has certainly earned his window in the Hall of Culture.
But how few people do.
Of course, it would be almost impossible to sit down and correct these words all at once and learn to pronounce them right.
But one can make an effort to notice different pronunciations in the course of conversation and then hunt out the right one and make it one's own.
That's the hardest way, but like most hardest ways, it's the only sure one.
It isn't safe to adopt a pronunciation because you hear someone you think is well educated using many people who ought to know better cling firmly to faulty pronunciations.
Nor is it safe to adopt a pronunciation because it sounds "high-brow." You are very apt to get caught this way. For instance, I think "inquiry" sounds more "college-professor" but as a matter of fact "inquire" has the weight of authority. And again, "precedence" certainly sounds punctiliously correct, but "precedence" really is the right pronunciation.
If you care to hunt down some of these words I think you will find the chase rather interesting.
Of course there's the drawback that even if you do learn to pronounce correctly ninety-nine one hundredths of the people who hear you won't know you are doing so.
But cheer up. Think how the other one hundredth will appreciate such a rarity.
Besides you know, knowledge as well as virtue, is, or surely ought to be, its own reward.

FATAL FIRE AT TOPEKA.
TOPEKA, Kan., Aug. 31.—One man was burned to death, another was seriously injured and property loss exceeding $100,000 resulted from an early morning fire in the business district of Topeka today.
The J. C. Gresser Furniture company and the Gibbs Clothing company are the heaviest financial losers.
E. V. Evans, a photographer, who lived in his studio, lost his life. The door leading to an adjoining office, through which he might have escaped, was locked and he was unable to break it down.
E. E. Babcock, acting fire chief, was seriously hurt by a falling ceiling, but will recover. The fire started in the furniture store at 423 Kansas avenue and is supposed to have been of incendiary origin.

CLEARING AWAY EVIDENCES OF STORM IN CHARLESTON.
CHARLESTON, S. C., Aug. 31.—Mayor Rhett is directing the work of rehabilitating storm-swept Charleston. A campaign of repairing and disinfecting is on. Today the death list was 11 and the property damage estimate stands at $1,500,000. Reports from exposed islands are that only two lives were lost. The victims were caught on James Island. The property damage is very heavy. It is said by planners that long staple cotton and rice have been almost wiped out. Houses have been wrecked and cattle and live stock killed.
First reports of damage at the Isle of Palms, a resort directly on the ocean, five miles from here, were exaggerated. Buildings were not as badly damaged as believed. Normal conditions are being rapidly restored.

NAVIGATION ON OHIO RIVER IS RESUMED.
GALLIPOLIS, O., Aug. 31.—Forty hours of rain has resulted in the Ohio river having reached a normal stage after the usual summer drought. Navigation has been resumed. Millions of bushels of coal have been started southward. Twenty-five million bushels of coal in the great Kanawha fleet of boats—started from Point Pleasant today for Cincinnati and Louisville.
The resumption of navigation this year after the drought is the earliest in 20 years.

September 1, 1881.
The Sunday school of the Methodist church held its annual picnic in Manitou.
John Goshen, a new Mexico desperado who boasted that he had killed 10 men in as many years, was killed by a 6-year-old boy in Arizona.
Many fishermen were enjoying the sport at Wagon Wheel Gap. This is still one of the best places in the state to enjoy trout fishing.
Cattle thieves had driven off over 50 young calves from the region east of Denver.
The Beebe house at Manitou closed for the season. It was expected that the Manitou, Barker and Cliff houses would remain open until the first of October.
James B. Orman of Pueblo, who came to this state 15 years previously, a poor boy without a cent to his name, was said to be the owner of 2,000 head of mules and to employ over 8,000 men.

No. 5 MILITADES, THE VALIANT ATHENIAN.
The victory won by Militades, with his small Athenian army, over the vast army sent by Darius, king of Persia, to conquer Greece, is reckoned among the world's greatest achievements in warfare, for had the Persians succeeded, the character of European civilization would have been entirely changed, becoming Asiatic. And besides the extraordinary disparity of the force, the Persians being ten times as numerous as the Greeks, makes this a very remarkable battle, especially as, up to that time, the Persian conquests and scarcely known a check.
The plain of Marathon, which is about 22 miles distant from Athens, lies along the bay of the same name on the northwestern coast of Attica. The battle was fought on September 28, 490 B. C. The Persian forces, under Datis and Dippias, having landed their forces from their vessels, encamped on the plain, while Militades was encamped on the hills round about and could watch every movement of the enemy.
On the September day previous to the battle Militades gave the word for the Athenian army to prepare for battle. The morning of the famous battle-day arrived. The trumpet sounded for action and, chanting the hymn of battle, the little army bore down upon the host of the foe. Instead of advancing at the usual slow pace of the phalanx, Militades brought his men on at a run. When the Persians saw the Athenians running down on them without horse or bowmen, and scanty in number, they thought them a set of madmen rushing upon certain destruction. On came the Greeks with unwavering line of leveled spears against which the light targets, the short lances and cleimerei of the orientals, offered a weak defence.
Militades charged, first one wing, then the other, and finally directed a supreme assault upon the center. Datis' veterans strove hard to keep their ground and evening was approaching before the stern encounter was decided.
But the Persians, with their slight wicker shields, destitute of body armor and never taught by training to keep the even front and act with the regular movement of the Greek infantry, fought at a heavy disadvantage with their shorter and feebler weapons against the compact array of well-armed Athenians and Plataean spearmen, all perfectly drilled to perform each necessary evolution in concert and to preserve a uniform and unwavering line of battle.
At last the previously unvanquished lords of Asia turned their backs and fled, and the Greeks under Militades followed, striking them down to the water's edge, where the invaders were now hastily launching their galleys and seeking to embark and fly. Flushed with success the Athenians attacked and strove to fire the fleet. They succeeded in destroying several of them, but the Persians succeeded in saving the rest.
Byron describes this battle as follows:
"The flying Mede, his shaftless broken bow;
The fiery Greek, his red pursuing spear;

NEW YORK MARKET

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Following a sharp rise at the opening of the market, and a subsequent reaction, stocks moved in a narrow range today. Trading was unsteady and traders were in different. Business fell to the small proportions of several days. Pressure was again directed against Lehigh Valley to a marked extent, and at one time during the day the stock fell three points from the high mark of the session. It was said, however, of a large interest in the property had been thrown on the market. Later in the day, Amalgamated was attacked in much the same manner, relapsing nearly two points. The similarity in the two movements gave rise to the belief that both were bear raids intended to facilitate short covering. Lehigh Valley's bottom price of the day was the lowest of the year. Interest continued to turn largely on the prospects of strikes on the Hartman and other lines. Securities of both great corporations, against which the supposition of forced deliveries in the antitrust suits, were active today. Transfer books of the Standard Oil company closed today, and transactions in this stock in the outside market were consequently for cash only. An offer was made of $3.10 for the stock "exclusively," but traders refused to deal in the issue on those terms until a better opportunity is presented of determining their value. Various plans were afoot today to prevent violent fluctuations in quotations tomorrow, but at the close of the day it was uncertain what course the trading would take. American Tobacco securities were strong throughout the session. Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $1,340,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

CHICAGO MARKET

CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—Unexpected strength in foreign markets, the result mainly of war risks having been advanced, brought about today higher prices for wheat. The close was at a gain of 3/4 to 1/2 over last night. Other leading staples all rose, corn 1/2 to 3/4; oats, 1/4 to 1/2; and provisions, 1/4 to 1/2. The decided change of the character of news from abroad, the water would apparently have led to a more radical upturn here but for heavy liquidating sales in the September option. The unloading of that future, though, was not without some compensating effect, being the sign of light deliveries tomorrow, and to that extent forming a bullish influence. Drought in Australia was also counted as a source of the strength for prices. On the other hand, the conditions for cutting and threshing in the Canadian northwest were reported. December ranged from 94 1/2 to 94 3/4, and closed at 94 1/2 to 94 3/4, with the final long steady. Talk of probable reduction or wiping out of the German duty on corn had much to do with a bulge in the market for that cereal. December fluctuated between 62 1/2 to 63 1/2, closing 1/2 to 1 1/2 higher, at 63 1/2. Cash and futures for good standard No. 2 yellow was quoted at 65 1/2 to 66 1/2. Oats also received an upward impetus from the shortage of feed in Germany. High and low points touched for the December delivery were 46 1/2 and 45 1/2, with last sales at 45 1/2, an improvement of 1/2 over last night. Packers were buyers on all soft spots in the market for hog products. The end of the session left higher figures for the entire line. Pork, up to 10 1/2, lard, 16 to 16 1/2, and ribs, 24 1/2 to 25 1/2. Quotations furnished by Otis & Hough.

NEW YORK MARKET

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Following a sharp rise at the opening of the market, and a subsequent reaction, stocks moved in a narrow range today. Trading was unsteady and traders were in different. Business fell to the small proportions of several days. Pressure was again directed against Lehigh Valley to a marked extent, and at one time during the day the stock fell three points from the high mark of the session. It was said, however, of a large interest in the property had been thrown on the market. Later in the day, Amalgamated was attacked in much the same manner, relapsing nearly two points. The similarity in the two movements gave rise to the belief that both were bear raids intended to facilitate short covering. Lehigh Valley's bottom price of the day was the lowest of the year. Interest continued to turn largely on the
